Jordan & Jordan Promotes Jim Sudol, Kathy McGovern and Kathleen Callahan

New York, NY | September 16, 2022 – Jordan & Jordan, a Veteran Owned financial technology company that provides Market Data solutions, technology and industry regulatory and research collaboration through FIF (fif.com) and RIXML (Rixml.org), announces the promotion of Jim Sudol to Managing Director of the Market Data Services, Kathy McGovern to Managing Director of Marketing and Human Resources and Kathleen Callahan to Director of Market Data Services.

Jim’s responsibilities focus on the management of the market data practice with a core objective of meeting customer market data needs through specific client assignments and engagements. Kathy’s role centers on leading J&J’s marketing and business development and managing the HR and Search practice to assist clients in finding permanent or temporary assistance. Kathleen works with clients to ensure they are meeting market data regulatory requirements assisting in compliance and identifying savings through MISU, quote meter, and indirect bill best practices. Jim and Kathy are members of FISD’s Executive Committee.

Tom Jordan, President & CEO said “Jim, Kathy and Kathleen have over 50+ years of combined experience with J&J which is a big reason why we remain a leader in Market Data Services. This business is more exciting and challenging than ever and all of us must continue to learn and adapt to new needs and opportunities. Jim, Kathy and Kathleen are three reasons why I am so confident of our ability to continue to assist clients in managing their market data business in a superlative fashion”.
